

Group Commitment

“Any group is only as strong as the ties that bind it, (in other words it’s about the trust we build between one another) so let’s talk for a few minutes about our commitments to one another.”

You, the facilitator (and co-facilitator), will commit to:

- Be present weekly
- Confidentiality
- Communicate changes promptly
- Provide a pleasant meeting environment
- To thoroughly prepare each week
- To prepare to facilitate graciously and effectively
- To start and end the meetings on time
- To participate with openness
- To pray for the group
